Seb: so do we have any concrete examples of how any of these anon ops have been able to help? me: sort of me: they were using our tactics in street confrontations the other day me: as reported by some Tunisians me: it's pretty early me: after the third guide is out, we'll see networks develop that we'll be using to distribute guidance and whatnot me: we certainly know that the Tunisian activists are distributing these guides me: and presumably we will be aware that far more have them after my op-ed for al-Jazeera comes out Seb: Cool...obviously if we can gather any specific examples it'll be useful for PR me: ye me: I've got tons of Tunisian and Algerian contacts now so I'll look into it Seb: And by PR i really just mean being able to bring it up with any authority if it comes up me: right
